Dig Deep into the Gospel with Father James.

Thanksgiving: Learning from One of the Ten Lepers in Luke 17:11-19

In the wisdom of the founding fathers and mothers of Canada, the second weekend in October is reserved for Thanksgiving. Whom are we thanking? God, of course. Why? We thank God for the end of the farming season, for the harvest, and for the health that allows us to continue enjoying God's creation. It is a weekend when we give back generously to God and His church for the blessings and for healing received.

Giving thanks is a spiritual celebration, and is mentioned several times in the Old Testament. See, for instance, Leviticus 7:11-15, Psalms 100, 106, and 107, among others. In the New Testament, there are several passages in the Gospels that tell how people came back to Jesus to give him thanks for healing and for blessings.

One such passage is today's Gospel. Jesus is on his way to meet His fate on the cross in Jerusalem. Luke says He is "between Samaria and Galilee." Ten lepers approach and www.youtube.com/@DigdeepintotheGospel

ask Him to have mercy on them. Most people would choose to look away and walk on by, but Jesus chooses to see their misery, hear their calls, and heal them. As was the religious practice, He sends them to the priests.

Luke tells us, "And as they went, they were made clean." But one of them, seeing that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving Him thanks" (v. 14-16). All three aspects of this Samaritan's response—falling prostrate, giving thanks (Greek, eucharisteō), and glorifying God—signal his recognition that beyond healing, beyond cleansing, he has found himself in the presence of the Holy One.

Jesus asked, "Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner? And He said to him, "Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well" (Luke 17:19). These words of Jesus may be directed to you and to me! Are you like the one who returned to give thanks, or are you with the nine who didn't care?

Here in St. Peter Church, Saturday, Oct. 25, 4:30 p.m., followed by Mass

• Our Parish Office will be closed this Monday for the holiday.

• Our next Parish Council meeting will be this Tuesday, Oct. 14, starting 6:30 p.m. in our Seniors' Center. All parishioners are welcome to attend.

- With deepest sympathies to family and friends, we invite all to pray for Catherine Bichel, who recently passed away. Funeral details are not yet available. May God bless her family and welcome her soul into paradise.
- Our CWL is planning a Craft And Bake Sale for Friday, Nov. 21 and Saturday, Nov. 22, if we can get enough helpers. You do not have to be a CWL member. Husband and wife teams are welcomed. If you can commit to helping, please contact Charmaine at 306-569-0219.
- New volunteers are still needed, and are always welcome.

Thank you for supporting our parish!

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

On Stewardship, from the Archdiocese bulletin (edited):

"Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?"
(Luke 17:18)

Most of us live relatively "easy"
lives. We have food, shelter, clothing, and money. We go on vacation every year and own one or two cars. Most of us take these things for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you, and discern how He is calling you to share your gifts.

This weekend we reflect on Naaman's healing and grateful return, and Paul's reminder that if we endure with Christ, we will also reign with Him. Only one of the ten healed lepers returns to thank Jesus—reminding us of the power of gratitude and the need for it. As we respond to the Annual Appeal, may our offerings reflect heartfelt thanksgiving for God's blessings. Every gift speaks: "Thank you, Lord," and helps share His love beyond these walls.
