Dig Deep into the Gospel with Father James.

The Apostles said to the Lord: "Increase our Faith" (Luke 17:5)

The above words from the start of today's Gospel reading (Luke 17:5-10) shows that the apostles struggled in their faith. The Bible is full of stories about people of faith, such as Enoch, Noah, Abraham and Sarah, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Samuel, David, and so on. They are presented to us as heroes of faith. When we read of their faith in their specific situations, we sometimes wonder if they too struggled, especially in very difficult situations. For that is when it seems hard for one to maintain faith in God.

Jesus' response to the Apostles refers to the potential of any seed. Seeds have potential if they are planted. It will grow into a plant, a tree and then produce fruits. The mention of their 'increase' implies their natural growth. That was why Jesus responded by saying, "If you had faith

www.youtube.com/@Digdeepintothegospel

the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you" (Luke 17:6). That means, the size of the seed of one's faith does not matter. He illustrates that even the smallest amount of true faith has the potential to produce immense growth, overcome obstacles, and achieve great things.

Jesus is reminding us to tap into the power of faith. But what is faith? The Letter to the Hebrews defines it in this way: "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" (Hebrews 11:1). Through His response, Jesus reminded them and us that faith is not something given to lay dormant, but something that must be grown. Just as seeds must be nourished in good soil and grown, so we too must put our faith into practice in order for us to live our faith.

- We announce with sorrow that our brother Leonard Lipp has been called home to the Lord. His funeral will be here this Monday, Oct. 6, at 10:00 a.m. Let us please pray for the repose of his soul, and for his family.
- "We have our Opening/Thanksgiving Mass scheduled at O'Neill [this] Thursday, Oct. 9, and would like to extend an invitation to the Parish Communities to attend" (O'Neill High School staff). It will be at 11:30 a.m., in the old gym.
- Thank you to all our volunteers! More are always welcome. For more info, contact Bernie at 306-535-9998 or our office.
- Our next Knights of Columbus meeting is this Wednesday, at 7:00 p.m. in the Seniors' Centre.
- May the Annual Appeal, kicking off this weekend, be a success!

Today

My name is Holly Hirschfield.

I am the chaplain at William Booth
Special Care Home. We are so grateful for the volunteers from your congregation that are serving residents here!

To support volunteers staying current with training for working with vulnerable folks like our residents, we are inviting the team that volunteers at William Booth to attend a Salvation Army Volunteer Refresher. This will enable all attendees to receive brief training updates (consisting of several short videos), and update paperwork as required.

11:00 to 11:30 a.m., this Wednesday, Oct. 8, in the William Booth Board Room. Refreshments are provided.

Thank you for supporting our parish!

Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

On Stewardship, from the Archdiocese bulletin (edited):

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control" (2 Timothy 1:7).

Many of us compartmentalize
our faith; we bring it out only when we attend Mass or a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

In today's readings, we are reminded to trust God's vision and live by faith, even when challenges surround us. St. Paul encourages us to "rekindle the gift of God" and to serve with courage and love. Jesus teaches that even the smallest faith can accomplish great things when we act humbly and generously. Our Annual Appeal is an opportunity to put this faith into action by supporting the mission and ministries that serve our parish and beyond. With your prayerful gift, you help plant seeds today that will grow into blessings for generations to come.
