Dig Deep into the Gospel with Father James.

Jesus' body, the new Temple - "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up."

In John 2:13-22, as the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went to Jerusalem and entered the Temple. The Jews were to slaughter lambs as offerings at the temple altar (Exodus 29:38-42). A sharp increase in the sale of sheep for sacrifices resulted. Foreign coins of different weights and sizes circulated; money changers would exchange these into shekels and deposit into a fund for Temple maintenance.

But they crossed a very big line when they made the Temple a "trading centre." It was to be the place where God dwelt. Its sanctuary, the innermost part of the Temple, contained the Holy of Holies. It was here that God revealed himself, instructed His people, and accepted their worship. Jesus identified the Temple as His Father's house (John 2:16) and drove them out. In so doing, Jesus alluded to His filial relationship to God as Son of the God.

Jesus then challenged the Jews opposing Him to destroy "this temple," saying, "In three days I will raise it up" (John 2:19). After His resurrection, the disciples remembered and knew that He was speaking of the temple of His body. Jesus' words announced changes that were to come in the way God is worshipped. No longer would there be need to purchase animals for sacrifices in the Temple for the worship of God. The incarnate Word is the new dwelling of God in the world. The new people of God gather as Church to celebrate this mystery.

Jesus' followers formed local churches everywhere to worship as Jesus commanded, celebrating Mass in homes and catacombs during many persecutions. Emperor Constantine, after converting to Christianity, donated special property to the church, where the first church would be built for worship as the New Temple. Over the centuries, it was damaged and repaired, until a special reconstruction in 1735 AD, when a new façade was added, along with an inscription, "In the fifth year of the Pontificate of Pope Clement XII, this church was dedicated as the archbasilica of the most holy Saviour and of John the Baptist and the evangelist." The Word who became flesh and dwelt amongst us (John 1:14) is the one God who is spirit, and His worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth where He dwells (John 4:24).

- This Tuesday, Nov. 11, is Remembrance Day. Prayerful events will be at the Brandt Center, Victoria Park (both 10:30 a.m.) and elsewhere. Our parish office will be closed.

On Stewardship, from the Archdiocese bulletin (edited):

"...because I came down from heaven not to do My own will but the will of the One who sent me...." John 6:38

When praying the "Our Father", say the words slowly, so you truly recognize what you are saying. Every day when praying this prayer, we repeat what Jesus said in the above scripture
passage - "thy kingdom come,
thy will be done." Even though we say these words, do our actions reflect those words?

Today, we celebrate God's presence in His temple and the call to be living temples of the Spirit. Ezekiel's vision of life-giving waters flowing from the temple reminds us that God brings refreshment and renewal to all creation. The Annual Appeal is an opportunity to support parish ministries that nurture faith, build community, and extend God's care to others. Your generosity helps ensure that Christ's presence continues to flow through our parish, touching lives with hope and love.
