*Restore us, O God of hosts;
let Your face shine, that we may be saved!
You brought a vine out of Egypt;
You drove out the nations and planted it.
You cleared the ground for it;
it took deep root and filled the land.
The mountains were covered with its shade...
Turn again, O God of hosts! Look down from heaven, and see; have regard for this vine...*

Why is October the Month of the Rosary?

"I invite everyone,
each day of the coming month,
to pray the Rosary for peace..." - Pope Leo XIV

It recalls the miraculous battle of Lepanto, Oct. 7, 1571, and applies the lesson.

From *Supremi
Apostolatus
Officio*, by Pope Leo XIII On Devotion Of The Rosary, 1883

This devotion, so great and so confident, to the august Queen of Heaven, has never shone forth with such brilliancy as when the militant Church of God has seemed to be endangered by the violence of heresy spread abroad, or by an intolerable moral corruption, or by the attacks of powerful enemies. Ancient and modern history and the more sacred annals of the Church bear witness...

Our merciful God, as you know, raised up against...most direful enemies a most holy man, the illustrious parent and founder of the Dominican Order... [H]e proceeded undauntedly to attack the enemies of the Catholic Church, not by force of arms; but trusting wholly to that devotion which he was the first to institute under the name of the Holy Rosary... [H]e foresaw that this devotion, like a most powerful warlike weapon, would be the means of putting the enemy to flight, and of confounding their audacity and mad impiety. Such was indeed its result...

The efficacy and power of this devotion was also wondrously exhibited in the sixteenth century, when the vast forces of the Turks threatened to impose on nearly the whole of Europe the yoke of superstition and barbarism...
